SIXTH STREET BETWEEN FRONT AND LAUREL.

Wm. Paine is building a dwelling house on the vacant lots adjoining his residence on 6th street south.

It is reported that the N. P. will begin to run trains over the cut-off the first of the coming month.

Wm. Paine is building an addition to the rear of his residence on 6th street, which he will occupy as an office.

There was no meeting of the city council on Monday night, as there was not enough members for a quorum present.

H. C. Miller, of this city, is building a three-story brick hotel at Staples for Sam St. Pierre, of Motley. It is 24x60 feet on the ground.

Ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will meet in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday, Oct. 20th, at 3:30 p. m. A large attendance is desired.

Lawyer J. H. True and J. S. Gardner have been in Duluth for the past few days on business connected with the estate of the late Francis Seymour.

Rev. Geo. H. Davis of St. Paul's Church, left for Montana, on Sunday in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of his son with typhoid fever.

Bro. Stivers complains that a traveling beggar victimized him. Most newspaper men would consider themselves fortunate if they had anything to be victimized of.

D. E. Watson, of this city, made an elaborate speech at Motley last Friday evening, the occasion being the presentation of a gold-headed cane to a popular dayman of that town.

A lumberman by the name of Archie Black, of St. John, N. B., died at the Sanitarium yesterday, of typhoid fever. His remains will be interred in Evergreen cemetery to-day.

The second of the series of balls to be given by Ascalon Commandry No. 16, during the season, will be held on Thanksgiving evening, Thursday, Nov. 28th, and is expected to be quite an elaborate affair.

Mr. Jas. Barber, of Chicago, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Thompson on their return to this city on Monday, and will reside here in the future. The gentleman is Mrs. Thompson's former parent.

Dr. J. C. Schultze, representing the Industrial Age, of Duluth, has been in the city for several days past, and has been quite successful in securing subscribers among the working men for his publication.

The Chenquata Club, formerly Thirteen Club, give a ball at the Hotel Arlington to-night. The reception committee consists of Geo. N. Day, G. D. LaBar and E. J. Pearson. Floor committee—W. A. M. Johnston, F. A. Farrar and J. J. Howe, Jr.

A new story of the chief of its contents was found in the rear of the house on Wednesday morning. It is supposed that it belonged to the boy who runs on the Duluth train, and was stolen and broken open by the same sweet scented individuals who stole the two boxes of oysters.

The work of putting in a sewer from the main of Laurel street to extend up 6th street to the Arlington Hotel, is now in progress, and will probably be completed in a couple of weeks. With this sewer the N. P. offices, the Arlington, the Y. M. C. A. bath rooms and the bank building will be connected.

John Sauber, a one legged beggar who was playing the sympathy racket about town last week in order to increase his exchequer, was arrested on Saturday for stealing a watch from Robert Peterson and a bolt of cloth from D. W. Whitford. His preliminary examination is set for Monday next.

Lynch & Gallup, proprietors of the new undertaking establishment on Laurel street between 6th and 7th, are now ready for business, their new hearse, the finest in the northwest, having arrived, and their stock of coffins, caskets, and everything required in their line of business being complete. They make all necessary preparations for burial. Mr. Gallup, thoroughly understands the work of embalming, holding a diploma of an embalming school.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Thompson returned on Monday noon from the East, where they had been sight-seeing and visiting friends and relatives for two months past. While absent Mr. and Mrs. Thompson visited New York, Washington, and other points of interest in the east. On the evening of their return home they were tendered a surprise party by their friends and neighbors, who, to the number of thirty-five or forty, gathered at their home and spent the evening, not forgetting to bring refreshments with them.

The sixteenth annual convention of the Y. M. C. A. of Minnesota and North and South Dakota is now in session at Duluth. This is undoubtedly the largest gathering of Christian young men ever held in the northwest. The following delegates from this city are in attendance: H. C. Craig, J. A. Wilson, A. B. Gould, F. M. Cable, Geo. Merrett, H. E. Losey, P. Kundson, Lou Speers, H. H. Mandell and J. Q. Mathews. Several other members of the association from this city are present.

Mrs. Wm. Steel and son Harry returned on Tuesday from the Pacific Coast, where they had been visiting relatives. Mr. Steel who accompanied them, remained at Vancouver, Washington, where he intends locating. He is now building a residence there, and Mrs. Steel and family will join him as soon as it is completed. Vancouver is a thriving young city just across the Columbia river from Portland, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Steel have hosts of friends in this city who will greatly regret their determination to reside elsewhere.

The Chenquata Club give a social hop to-night at the Arlington.

The Y. M. C. A. netted about $53 from the oyster supper last Saturday evening.

Leon E. Lum and Wm. Seelye are this week slaughtering (1) ducks in Cass county.

Mrs. W. B. Ankeny presented her husband with a fine, healthy son, the first of the week.

Chas. M. Hertig, a Minneapolis money lender, has been in the city several days the past week.

Mrs. Jas. Meagher and Mrs. Thos. Kennedy returned on Monday from a six weeks' visit to their former home in Canada.

Miss Irma Camp gave a five o'clock coffee yesterday afternoon to quite a number of her lady friends, and a splendid social time is reported.

The 13 Club has changed its name to Chenquata Club, and has also changed the rules of the Club so that any man of good character is eligible to become a member.

Mr. Oliver E. Bereman, proprietor of the barber shop under Hagberg's store, was on the 16th inst., married to Miss Ella Wilson, an East Brainerd lady, the ceremony being performed at Duluth, Minn.

City Attorney McClenahan, accompanied by M. Johnson, of Baltimore, Md., has gone to Dakota to enjoy a duck hunt. Mr. Johnson is a prominent lawyer of Baltimore, and is a former class-mate of Mr. McClenahan.

Mrs. Rebecca Lloyd, mother of Mrs. John Atkinson, of East Brainerd, was given a pleasant surprise party at the residence of her daughter on Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being her seventy-eighth birthday. She was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

The ladies of St. Paul's church will give an entertainment some time during the coming month, to be known as a "Merchant's Carnival." Each young lady taking part in the entertainment will wear ribbons bearing the card of some business house in the city for which a slight consideration will be received.

Mr. and Mrs. M. McFadden returned yesterday from Pittsburgh, where Mrs. McFadden has been for some weeks caring for a sick mother who has greatly improved. Milt attended the Knight Templars convention at Washington, after which he joined his wife at his old home in Pittsburgh.

Oliver Smith, a five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Smith, of Crow Wing, died at the residence of her parents on Friday the 18th inst., of catarrh of the stomach. Her remains were buried in Evergreen cemetery in this city on Sunday, the Rev. Wm. H. Everest, of Crow Wing, conducting the funeral service.

The lands owned by the Francis Seymour estate were finally sold this morning under an order of the probate court of Crow Wing county, by Administrator J. S. Gardner and Attorney J. H. True of Brainerd. The property consists of the east half of the southwest quarter of section 34, township 50, range 15, and was bid in by John A. Schlenger of Minneapolis for $38 per acre. The sale was confirmed this afternoon—Duluth Herald.

Two gentlemen of leisure on Wednesday stole two boxes of oysters from the express office and began to realize on them by selling them to the saloons and restaurants about town. The oysters were soon missed and the men arrested and arraigned before Judge Fleming. They pleaded not guilty, but on trial were convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or go to jail. Not having money to pay their fine they are now behind the bars.

The newly organized bank which goes under the name of the Northern Pacific Bank of Brainerd, began business on Tuesday in a part of the room now occupied by the Lumberman's Exchange Bank. J. N. Nevers is cashier, and I. Seymour, formerly N. P. store-keeper, is telling. The Lumberman's Bank is still doing business at the old stand, although we understand that Mr. Spaulding will close up his banking business as soon as possible, and devote his whole time to the post-office.

On Friday last Officer Deroch arrested two men by the name of John Gray and Jas. Fee for disorderly conduct, and was taking them to the lock-up when both men suddenly attacked him, intending to give him a severe beating. Those who are a terror to the toughs, proved too much for them, and knocked them both senseless with his club, not, however, until he had received a kick that broke a small bone in his hand. After subduing the fellows they were loaded on the dray and carted to the jail and locked up. The next day they were brought before his Honor, who fined them $20 each and costs, or 25 days in jail. Having more time than money, they languish.

If you buy watches, clocks, jewelry, silverware, etc., at Veon's clearing-out sale, you can give two presents, when you only intend to give one on the holidays, or save about one-half your money as you may choose, only do not wait too long.

Losey & Dean have a beautiful line of etchings and imported photographs coming in a few days. Everybody invited to come and see them. The etchings are artists proof on India paper and copyrighted, for holiday trade.

Threatened Charges.

Col. C. L. Spaulding received word on Wednesday that his commission as postmaster had been sent that day from the department in Washington by mail, and he will probably receive it to-day or to-morrow, when he will at once take charge of the office. Col. Spaulding received his appointment over two months ago, and has been daily expecting his commission, but for some reason it did not come. Becoming tired of the delay, Mr. Spaulding one day last week had a telegram sent to Washington attorneys to investigate the matter and report the cause of the delay. Upon investigation the attorneys found that the delay in sending the commission was due to the fact that a citizen of this city, whose name the attorneys give as Smith, had telegraphed the department to hold the commission until charges of a serious character, which he intended to prefer, had been filed. As no charges had been received, and Congressman Comstock finding how matters stood, had telegraphed the department that no charges against Mr. Spaulding could be sustained, the department authorities determined to wait no longer, and accordingly issued the commission and mailed it the first of the week. The announcement of the attorneys that charges of a serious nature had been threatened, was a surprise to Mr. Spaulding's many friends here, who know that the whole thing is nothing but a piece of spite work, and a rank injustice, as Mr. Spaulding is known to be an unusually honorable and upright man in every respect.

A Warning to Boys.

A sad accident happened at Staples Saturday evening. Several small children were playing near the track, and Bert Palmateer, six years of age, was run over by a freight train that he tried to get upon. The right limb was severed at the hip. He lived but a short time.—Motley Register.

A Clever Entertainer.

Mrs. George S. Knight and her excellent company will give the admirers of clean and amusing farcical and Musical Comedies an opportunity to see one of the cleverest entertainments ever given in Brainerd on Monday evening October 28th. Mrs. Knight will give three short farces or comedettes in one evening for the one price of admission. The wisdom of this step has been demonstrated by the large audiences which have greeted the lady wherever she has appeared, and the very flattering reception her entertainments have received from the best critics. The following are the plays to be given on that evening, all having but one set, with a happy finish to each and every one: At 8:30 o'clock, "Happy Number" at 9:15 o'clock, "Look-Like" at 10 o'clock, "My Lord in Livery." Mrs. Knight is well known to the theatre goers of Brainerd, and they will turn out in large numbers to welcome the pleasing little actress. The costumes worn by Mrs. Knight are rich and elegant.

The Fargo Argus pays the lady this handsome compliment. The date of the article being Sunday Oct. 20th: "Mrs. George S. Knight has been seen too often in Fargo to need any introduction to the public, and she received a warm welcome from her many admirers. She dances as gracefully as ever, sings as beautiful as of yore, and displays the same exquisite taste in her costumes. Indeed, it may be said of all the ladies of the company that their costumes were exceedingly rich and tasty. Her support is very good, and the acting by the different members of the cast leaves little to be desired."

Crow Wing Correspondence.

Mrs. C. D. Sterling of Glenwood is visiting friends in this vicinity.

W. H. Everest returned home from Duluth Saturday night, where he had been on a business trip for the past week.

Temperance meetings as usual at half-past seven every Sunday evening at the school house.

M. L. Patterson purchased a nice looking team Friday, of M. D. Wilson of Minneapolis.

Miss Allie Shobes of Minneapolis, at present, visiting at Belle Prairie, attended the dance at Mr. Mayo's Friday night.

Miss Maude Downing, a charming lassie, of Little Falls was visiting her friend Miss Minnie Pendley, Friday and Saturday.

The dance at Mr. Thomas's Wednesday night, was well attended, passed off smoothly, and everybody had a nice time.

It is presumed that there was not many hundred bushels of corn husked at the husking "B" at Mr. Mayo's Friday. But the dance in the evening was well attended, and one of the most enjoyable evenings of the season.

Mr. E. M. Phelps feels much elated over the arrival of a baby girl, and wanted to set up the cigars, but unfortunately for the boys, our store was short that article at the time.

Accidents happen to the best of us occasionally, no matter how careful we are. But it should be remembered that it was very dark Wednesday night to try a drive with one hand, and avoid accidents, especially a road that is not acquainted with the road.

Confidential: Two of our big pedro players got beaten three to one in a game at the dance Wednesday night. Turning the table and shifting seats did not seem to improve their game in the least. Practice up and call some time, J. and M.

MAY.

Daniel E. Baumgardner Coming. The above named renowned tragedian and an excellent company of sixteen artists from the city of New York intend to give an entertainment in the Opera house in this city on the night of November 25th, presenting a Shakespearean tragedy. The repertoire consists of Hamlet, Macbeth, Richard III, Othello, Narcissus, Elizabeth, Julius Caesar and others. All the members of the company are artists, and the production will be first class in every respect. It is stated that Helen, Alconada, Butte and Spokane Falls tickets to the amount of $9,000 have been sold for this entertainment.

Veon is surprising the natives on prices of jewelry, silverware, etc. Everything cut to cost or below for a short time.

City Attorney McClenahan, accompanied by M. Johnson, of Baltimore, Md., has gone to Dakota to enjoy a duck hunt. Mr. Johnson is a prominent lawyer of Baltimore, and is a former class-mate of Mr. McClenahan.

Mrs. Rebecca Lloyd, mother of Mrs. John Atkinson, of East Brainerd, was given a pleasant surprise party at the residence of her daughter on Tuesday afternoon, the occasion being her seventy-eighth birthday. She was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

The ladies of St. Paul's church will give an entertainment some time during the coming month, to be known as a "Merchant's Carnival." Each young lady taking part in the entertainment will wear ribbons bearing the card of some business house in the city for which a slight consideration will be received.

Mr. and Mrs. M. McFadden returned yesterday from Pittsburgh, where Mrs. McFadden has been for some weeks caring for a sick mother who has greatly improved. Milt attended the Knight Templars convention at Washington, after which he joined his wife at his old home in Pittsburgh.

Oliver Smith, a five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Smith, of Crow Wing, died at the residence of her parents on Friday the 18th inst., of catarrh of the stomach. Her remains were buried in Evergreen cemetery in this city on Sunday, the Rev. Wm. H. Everest, of Crow Wing, conducting the funeral service.

The lands owned by the Francis Seymour estate were finally sold this morning under an order of the probate court of Crow Wing county, by Administrator J. S. Gardner and Attorney J. H. True of Brainerd. The property consists of the east half of the southwest quarter of section 34, township 55, range 15, and was bid in by John A. Schlegel of Minneapolis for $38 per acre. The sale was confirmed this afternoon.—Duluth Herald.

Two gentlemen of leisure on Wednesday stole two boxes of oysters from the express office and began to realize on them by selling them to the saloons and restaurants about town. The oysters were soon missed and the men arrested and arraigned before Judge Fleming. They pleaded not guilty, but on trial were convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or go to jail. Not having money to pay their fine they are now behind the bars.

The newly organized bank which goes under the name of the Northern Pacific Bank of Brainerd, began business on Tuesday in a part of the room now occupied by the Lumberman's Exchange Bank. J. N. Nevers is cashier, and I. Seymour, formerly N. P. store-keeper, is teller. The Lumberman's Bank is still doing business at the old stand, although we understand that Mr. Spaulding will close up his banking business as soon as possible, and devote his whole time to the post-office.

On Friday last Officer Dorosh arrested two men by the name of John Gray and Jas. Fee for disorderly conduct, and was taking them to the lock-up when both men suddenly attacked him, intending to give him a severe beating. Mose, who is a terror to the toughs, proved too much for them, and knocked them both senseless with his club, but, however, until he had received a kick that broke a small bone in his hand. After subduing the fellows they were loaded on the dray and carted to the jail and locked up. The next day they were brought before his Honor, who fined them $20 each and costs, or 25 days in jail. Having more time than money, they languish.

Threatened Charges. Col. L. L. Spaulding received word on Wednesday that his commission as postmaster had been sent that day from the department in Washington by mail, and he will probably receive it to-day or to-morrow, when he will at once take charge of the office.

Col. Spaulding received his appointment over two months ago, and has been daily expecting his commission, but for some reason it did not come. Becoming tired of the delay, Mr. Spaulding one day last week had a telegram sent to Washington attorneys to investigate the matter and report the cause of the delay. Upon investigation the attorneys found that the delay in sending the commission was due to the fact that a citizen of this city, whose name the attorneys give as Smith, had telegraphed the department to hold the commission until charges of a serious character, which he intended to prefer, had been filed. As no charges had been received, and Congressman Comstock finding how matters stood, had telegraphed the department that no charges against Mr. Spaulding could be sustained, the department authorities determined to wait no longer, and accordingly issued the commission and mailed it the first of the week. The announcement of the attorneys that charges of a serious nature had been threatened, was a surprise to Mr. Spaulding's many friends here, who know that the whole thing is nothing but a piece of spite work, and a rank injustice, as Mr. Spaulding is known to be an unusually honorable and upright man in every respect.

A Warning to Boys. A sad accident happened at Staples Saturday evening. Several small children were playing near the track, and Bert Palmer, six years of age, was run over by a freight train that he tried to get up. The right limb was severed at the hip. He lived but a short time.—Motley Register.

A Clever Entertainment. Mrs. George S. Knight and her excellent company will give the admirers of clean and amusing Farce and Musical Comedies an opportunity to see one of the cleverest entertainments ever given in Brainerd on Monday evening October 28th. Mrs. Knight will give three short farces or comedettes in one evening for the one price of admission. The wisdom of this step has been demonstrated by the large audiences which have greeted the lady wherever she has appeared, and the very flattering reception her entertainments have received from the best critics. The following are the plays to be given on that evening, all having but one act, with a happy finish to each and every one: At 8:30 o'clock, "Lucky Number;" at 9:15 o'clock, "Hoop-La;" at 10 o'clock, "My Lord in Livery." Mrs. Knight is well known to the theatre goers of Brainerd, and they will turn out in large numbers to welcome the pleasing little actress. The costumes worn by Mrs. Knight are rich and elegant. The Fargo Argus says the lady this handsome compliment. The date of the article being Sunday Oct. 26th: Mrs. George S. Knight has been seen too often in Fargo to need any introduction to the public, and she receives a warm welcome from her many admirers. She dances as gracefully as ever, sings as beautiful as of yore, and displays the same exquisite taste in her costumes. Indeed it may be said of all the ladies of the company that their costuming were exceedingly rich and tasty. Her support is very good, and the acting by the different members of the cast leaves little to be desired.

Crow Wing Correspondence.

Mrs. C. D. Sterling of Glenwood is visiting friends in this vicinity.

W. H. Everest returned home from Duluth Saturday night, where he had been on a business trip for the past week.

Temperance meetings as usual at half-past seven every Sunday evening at the school house.

M. L. Patterson purchased a nice looking team Friday, of M. D. Wilson of Minneapolis.

Miss Allie Shobes of Minneapolis, at present, visiting at Belle Prairie, attended the dance at Mr. Mayo's Friday night.

Miss Maude Downing, a charming lassie, of Little Falls was visiting her friend Miss Minnie Peasley, Friday and Saturday.

The dance at Mr. Thomas's Wednesday night, was well attended, passed off smoothly, and everybody had a nice time.

It is presumed that there was not many hundred bushels of corn husked at the husking "B" at Mr. Mayo's Friday. But the dance in the evening was well attended, and one of the most enjoyable events of the season.

Mr. E. M. Phelps feels much elated over the arrival of a baby girl, and wanted to set up the cigars, but unfortunately for the boys, our store was short that article at the time.

Accidents happen to the best of us occasionally, no matter how careful we are. But it should be remembered that it was very dark Wednesday night to try to drive with one hand and avoid accidents, especially a horse that is not acquainted with the road.

Confidential: Two of our brag pedro players got beaten three to one in a game at the dance Wednesday night. Turning the table and shifting seats did not seem to improve their game in the least. Practices up and call some time, J. and M. MAY.

Daniel E. Baumann Centering. The above named renowned tragedian and an excellent company of sixteen artists from the city of New York, intend to give an entertainment in the Opera house in this city on the night of November 25th, presenting a Shakespearean tragedy. The repertoire consists of Hamlet, Macbeth, Richard III, Othello, Narcissus, Elizabeth, Julius Caesar and others. All the members of the company are artists, and the production will be first class in every respect. It is stated that in Helena, Anaconda, Butte and Spokane Falls tickets to the amount of $9,000 have been sold for this entertainment.
